Parish Weekly News Third Sunday after Trinity

Welcome to the Priory and to our Sunday services. A very special welcome to those who are worshipping with us.

Sunday services in The Priory

From Sunday 13th June there will no longer be a service at 9.30am, the 10.30am service will continue to be held every Sunday as usual. From 27th June the 8am service will be resumed and the 9.30 family service will also resume on the first Sunday of the month thereafter. Silence will continue to be held at 5.30pm every Friday.

You will no longer need to book a place for any service you wish to attend please just turn up as you used to do pre-pandemic. Names and contact details of those who attend will no longer be recorded and visitors will be encouraged to use the QR Code at the door on arrival. For the time being stewards will, however, continue to show you to a seat as it is so important that we observe social distancing. Sadly, too, the congregation is not allowed to sing and masks should still be worn at all times in the Priory.

For Our Prayers

Trinity 3

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Post Communion

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power
we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory
as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

The Morning Service Readings

First Reading 2 Corinthians 6. 1-13

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,
'At an acceptable time I have listened to
you,
and on a day of salvation I have helped
you.'

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labours, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute.

We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you.
There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

Gospel Reading

Mark 4. 35-41

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'
